TODAY WE MEET THE QSCHU

As our family knows, we have had a new addition. This would be our great granddaughter, Quinn, by David and Kerry Schumaker. She was born on Valentine's Day and we have only seen photos of her. This trip was especially routed so we could meet her in person. What a joy! We met David and Kerry, Quinn, and Michelle at the Peasant and the Pear restaurant in Danville, CA She stole the show!

Yesterday we drove a whole 54 miles from Morgan Hill to the Alameda County Fairgrounds. The Fairgrounds has a highly acclaimed RV park and the space rent is $40 which is reasonable these days.
We travel on IS680 and it is a terrible road. Actually it is a disgrace to our road system, as well as most state highways in CA. Many 3rd world countries have better roads than we do! I do not think that there will ever be enough money to bring them all back to par.
Tomorrow morning we will head out to Sacramento.
