

HOME AGAIN HOME AGAIN, JIGGETY JIG

Like the three little pigs, us two little pigs head for home. It is becoming evident that our decision to come home before Labor Day was a good one. Every place we have been this week has been booked solid for the holiday.

Looking back at our simple trip north and back, we fondly remember the beautiful sights we have seen.

We can't wait to see if we will be able to do this again next year!

As usual, I

present a recap of expenses, etc. for your perusal.

We traveled a total of 3712 miles and spent $1976.00 for fuel. Our expense for RV parks was $393. Food was $420 and eating out was $624. We averaged 7.01 mpg and spent an average of $63.86/day. This leaves just enough money for a cruise to Alaska on Sept 14th!
