HOME AGAIN, HOME AGAIN, JIGGETY JIG!

The day began in Brookings, OR. and within 7 miles we were in CA. Aiming for San Francisco we fell short and had to stop in Benbow, due to Bonnies' back hurting. The next day we made it all the way to Merced, CA and stayed in a nice Park by the river. The photo is of an eccentric chalk artist at the RV Park where we stayed in Brookings.

We decided not to stop and visit our friends in Sacramento and Redwood City. This was a first, after years of stopping to visit! After Merced we headed to Bakersfield and went direct to home in good ole Redlands. This was a couple of 350+ mile days that almost wiped out us old folks!

For those interested in statistics, here goes.

RV Parks $786.61
Groceries $820.54
Eat Out $362.96
Misc. $245.07
Gas $1475.46 both vehicles
Repairs $50.00
Total $3746.03
Per Day $52.76 (71 days)

This is the lowest daily rate we have had, due to staying in each place longer, and in Thousand Trails parks.
