HOME AGAIN, HOME AGAIN JIGGITY JIG!

For reasons known only to people in their mid-eighties, the trip mode suddenly shifted into the going home mode. A mad dash to the familiar ensues, and WOW, here we are, pulling into our driveway, trip over.

From Hells Gate Park, we set out on a south westerly course on Hwy 395 to California. We opted not to go thru the mountains thru Reno and Mammoth, but to go down the valley on IS5. We changed from 150 mile days to 350-400 mile days and here we are! We drove thru miles of wheat country.

For those interested, we drove a total of 3800 miles. We were gone for 57 days and spent $62.91/day, for a total of $3,586. This included $1,245 for gasoline, $992 for RV parks, and $540 to eat out.

The old RV now has 133,000 miles on it and ran like a top! We have 86 years on us, and we found it harder and harder to do the necessary tasks to set up and take down the rig, repeatedly. We are thinking no more long trips. Just the monthly rally's of our Happy Travelers club. We hope all of you folks have enjoyed reading our journals over the years.

Love, Dave & Bonnie
