WE'VE SEEN CHICKEN WITH OUR OWN EYES!

We took our first ferry ride with the rig, getting out of Dawson not soon enough. We had to wait for our western pictures to be printed. They turned out well.

We drove all morning on dirt road which was surprisingly smooth.

We had lunch at the highest point on the Top of the World Highway. Above the tree line.

We grunted up the steep hill and at the last turn we came upon three bicyclists PEDALING up and over the mountain!

Went thru customs with nary a hitch and we were in ALASKA!

IF YOU'VE EATEN CHICKEN, YOU'VE SEEN CHICKEN

The road starting after you enter Alaska is not the best road in the world. It is full of potholes and is a dusty dirt road to boot.

In places you only drive 30 mph.

We came upon the town of Chicken, named so because the old timers couldn't spell Ptarmigan! It has 3 stores and on slow days is run by a woman who runs between all of them. Tonight we are staying at a free BLM site.

THE ONLY WILDLIFE WE'VE SEEN TODAY IS A RABBIT!
