AS LONG AS WE AIN'T SEEN ANIMALS

We tried to leave early this morning. After fueling, we went to the airport to see a film about the Pipeline.

The film was so good we bought the tape.

So we got away about 10AM. The road that we came to Valdez on was retraced to Glennallen, where we got on Hwy #4.

This road for the first 100 miles or so had bad frost

WE AIN'T SEEN NO HIPPOS EITHER!

IT'S GONNA RAIN!*

HEAVE HO!, FROST HEAVES THAT IS.

heaves. Our speed was limited to about 35-40 mph, to keep from launching into orbit. In between was rough road.

The road started out boring, but as we progressed, the scenery became fabulous. Several glaciers were seen, as well as beautiful mountains and valleys.

Our site was right on the edge of a fast flowing river. We BBQ'd some of Dons' Halibut. It was simply delicious.

We caught up with Diane
