HAPPINESS IS LEAVING IDAHO!

We left the Slate Creek campground and proceeded to Riggins to see about a river jet boat trip on the Salmon. They needed 4 people and no one else had signed up.

We will have to do it on the Klamath River in Oregon.

The route today down 55 Hwy went thru passes and river gorges. The vegetation is very dry, and the day is about 97 to 102 degrees outside. We went thru downtown Boise and saw the Capitol which is a ROUND' EM UP AND HEAD' EM CROSS THE RIVER, ZEKE!

This State Park camp is a lovely place. With the exception of the paved sites, all the grounds are grass and trees.

It overlooks the Snake River where Lewis and Clark crossed. Next Saturday there is going to be a re-enactment of that crossing with real covered wagons, long horned cattle, buffalo and people.

The camp is booked solid for this event. Tomorrow we head for Twin Falls.
